Ministers Asked To Testify At Ottawa Inquiry

Stevens Committee Is Requested By President of Macdonald Tobacco Company to Call For Evidence on Government Purchasing

MINISTERS ARE NOT NAMED

Ottawa, May 10.—Walter M. Stewart of Montreal, president of the Macdonald Tobacco Company, threw a bombshell into the proceedings of the Commons business practices inquiry committee to-day. He wanted to call three members of the government, whom he did not name, claiming his questions would concern the "buying of the government."

The Montreal tobacco man was the first witness when the committee met this afternoon. "Have I the right to speak?" he asked the committee chairman, Hon. H. H. Stevens, who said "yes."

"Have I the right to call three members of the government and question them?" "No," said the chairman. "But you are a member of the government," said Mr. Stewart, referring to the chairman.

INSTRUCTIONS QUOTED
The committee was following a reference of Parliament and had specific instructions, said the chairman, reading the order to the committee. Mr. Stewart was called to discuss the tobacco business.

"You are talking about the buying of tobacco. What I am trying to talk about is the buying of the government," insisted Mr. Stewart.

COMMISSION SUGGESTED
There was a general hubbub in the committee room, while Mr. Stewart added: "What about a royal commission. Can you buy that too?"

The chairman rapped for order, telling the witness he was here to be questioned and not to make statements or accusations.

Edward Young, Liberal member for Westbury, Sask., said that if members of the government had any light to throw on the subject, the committee would call them.

Certainly," agreed the chairman. "Will you call them to-morrow while the House is sitting?" asked (Turn to Page 9, Col. 2)

MORE THAN 200 STRIKERS ARRESTED

Cincinnati, May 10.—More than 200 men and women picketing an industrial plant here were arrested to-day as 1,100 workers of another concern walked out because, they asserted, their employers refused to recognize their union.

Seattle Port Fund Shortage Is Big Total

Change Made In Mine Divisions
Realignment of Provincial Areas Completed; Fewer Engineers in Service

Consolidation of number four and six mining districts in the province was started some time ago and was completed to-day. The new arrangement placed Ashcroft, the former Yukon district under the supervision of the Vancouver mining office, where A. M. Richmond is in charge.

The change was made to facilitate the work of the Department of Mines and completes a realignment of districts under which number three district was eliminated.

The Department of Mines is now operating with five district engineers, formerly there were six engineers, the mineralogist and an assistant.

Party Will Explore Northern British Columbia

An expedition composed of scientists and society sportsmen and sportswomen will attempt to penetrate and explore this summer a great area of unknown mountain and valley wilderness which lies in northern B.C., just south of the Yukon. Pictured above are some of the members of the expedition which is officially called the Bedaux-Canadian Sub-Arctic Expedition.

U.S. Will Accept Token Payments In June On War Debts

Defaulters Will Not Escape Provisions of Johnson Act Barring Fresh Credit Transactions, Embargo at Washington Are Informed

Is Not Expected France Will Pay

Washington, May 10.—The United States has informed nations owing war debts that the government will accept token payments offered on June 15, but those countries will not escape the provisions of the Johnson Act, barring credit transactions with defaulting nations.

Envoys of debtor nations, including the French, Belgian and Italian ambassadors, have been informed of this decision by this government during the last few days at the State Department.

The United States government's attitude is that any tokens offered will be accepted, but neither the President nor the State Department will give the nations any assurance they are not in default.

On that premise, countries which fail to meet their installments in full will be considered as coming within the provisions of the Johnson Act.

Paris, May 10.—The French cabinet decided to-day to discuss the war debt question at length next Tuesday, although there was no sign that any change in attitude is in prospect. The government is expected to let the next installment date, June 15, pass without action.

Washington, May 10.—An expected early reopening of conversations with Great Britain gave promise to-day of a possible break in the war debt deadlock. State Department officials (Turn to Page 9, Col. 3)

RELIEF WORKERS OUT ON STRIKE

Drumheller, Alta., May 10.—Relief workers in the city of Drumheller reported "on the job" as usual to-day, ignoring strike calls from other industrial centers in the valley.

In other valley towns the relief workers demanded immediate action, and in some cases, the strikers have been reported.

WHEAT ESTIMATE IN U.S. IS DOWN

Washington, May 10.—Winter wheat production in the United States this year was forecast to-day by the Department of Agriculture at 461,471,000 bushels, compared with 491,798,000 bushels indicated a month ago, 351,696,000 bushels produced last year, and 622,061,000 bushels, the 1922-31 average production.

Thompson had brought his plea before Judge Sparks in a petition for a habeas corpus writ. Inuall remained in the county jail hospital on charges of using the mails fraudulently and violating the bankruptcy act.

Gains To-day At Winnipeg Bring Advance In Three Day Period To Six Cents

On Chief Canadian Markets May Closes at 71 3/4 Cents, July at 73 and October at 74 5/8; Five Cent Gain Seen at Chicago

Winnipeg, May 10.—Gloomy crop prospects attributed to hostile weather conditions sent wheat prices soaring to-day on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. Closing quotations saw futures 2 3/4 to 2 5/8 higher, making gains of around 6c in three days.

The May option ended at 71 3/4 cents, July at 73 cents and October at 74 5/8 cents. The crop outlook was darkened by high temperatures, dust storms and lack of rainfall, while the grasshopper menace remained an unknown quantity.

Bulls swept the pit with buying orders. Selling developed at peak prices, but failed to do more than slow up the rising tide of prices. The Winnipeg market emulated that of Chicago, where a sensational spurt shot prices for the maximum gain allowed of 5 cents.

Traders were enthused, not only by the Canadian crop picture but by serious crop news from the United States and eastern Europe.

Associated Press
Chicago, May 10.—Wheat prices spurted sensationally upward to-day, the limit for daily fluctuations on the strength of aggressive commission house buying late in the session.

The maximum rise was in the July delivery. Traders apparently centered attention on continuance of widespread drought and severe dust storms in wheat growing territory.

DROUGHT SERIOUS
Chicago, May 10.—Threatened by light rains yesterday evening, but not dissuaded, the grain market of the United States, middle western grain belt was viewed to-day with grave concern by crop experts in many states.

Winter wheat, they agreed, was seriously affected by the absence of moisture already, and some experts predicted that unless substantial rain fell within a week, the crop would produce as little as 25 per cent.

BOMB MEANT FOR DOLLFUSS

But Missile Found and Austrian Chancellor Arrives Safely in Salzburg

Salzburg, Austria, May 10.—Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss again narrowly escaped death to-day when authorities found a high explosive bomb at the airport, station here shortly before he arrived from Vienna for a Patriotic Front meeting.

The infernal machine contained eleven pounds of explosive and was equipped with clockwork. The little chancellor appeared unperturbed.

He and Prince Ernst von Starhemberg, Vice-Chancellor, were showered with flowers. They were almost mobbed by buxom peasant girls who swarmed around them, repeatedly holding up their procession through the streets of Salzburg.

Associated Press
Washington, May 10.—President Roosevelt added to an estimated $417,000,000 to-day to the annual revenue of the United States by signing into law the 1934 tax bill.

The act increases tax levies already amounting to $3,250,000,000 by strengthening existing laws against evasion and adding new sources of income.

The new law provides: Heavier taxes on higher incomes, gifts, estate transfers, corporations and personal holding companies. Partial income tax publicity. Elimination of consolidated corporation returns.

JAPANESE ON HUNT FOR NEW MARKETS

With British Enforcing Quotas, They Look to Latin-America, China and Even Dominions of Empire

Tokyo, May 10.—Japan scanned the commercial horizon to-day, seeking new markets with which to fight British restrictions on Japanese exports.

A counter-thrust, Japanese industrial leaders propose to sell in Latin-America, Manchuria, South China, Egypt and even in the British dominions the products which quota restrictions will exclude from other parts of the British Empire.

TEXTILE MAN'S OPINION
Fusajiro Abe, president of the Japan Spinners' Association, whose organization will be pitted against the mills of Lancashire, believes Japanese new markets will triumph.

"British quotas on Japanese imports mean Lancashire will be reduced to utter dependence," Abe said. "By resorting to this means of protecting their British industry digressions."

DESTROYER AND SHIP COLLIDE

Canadian Press from Havas
London, May 10.—The British destroyer Whirlwind collided with the steamship Lulworth during a fog in the English Channel to-day. Both ships were damaged.

The Whirlwind escorted the Lulworth to Dartmouth.

MISS HODGSON IS DEFEATED

Beaten 1 Up By Kay Farrell in Semi-finals of B.C. Amateur Golf Tourney

Vancouver, May 10.—Miss Kay Farrell, Jericho Golf Club, and Mrs. W. M. Silcock, her clubmate, marched into the final of the British Columbia women's golf championship over their home course to-day.

Miss Farrell defeated Miss Peggy Hodgson, Colwood Club, Victoria, on the last green after a nip and tuck battle. Mrs. Silcock defeated Mrs. K. C. Allen, Jericho, 5 and 4.

Miss Hodgson rounded the turn one hole up as the result of a birdie four on the ninth. On the green in three, she holed a twelve-foot putt to win the hole. She three-putted the next green, however, and the match was squared.

A long chip shot on the eleventh for a birdie four put Miss Farrell in the lead. The Colwood star squared the match on the fifteenth and went 1 up on the next hole when Miss Farrell overran the green.

The Jericho ace fought back to even terms on the seventeenth when she returned par figures while Miss Hodgson's second putt rimmed the cup.

Miss Farrell won the match on the eighteenth when Miss Hodgson, after dubbing her second, just missed a twelve-footer which would have given her a four. Miss Farrell chipped to within twenty feet of the pin and sank the putt.

WARM AT LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles, May 10 (Associated Press).—Heat records of seven years' standing were shattered in Los Angeles to-day as the mercury soared to 95 degrees. It also was the hottest day of the year.

RECOVERS AFTER OPERATION

Regina, May 10 (Canadian Press).—Condition of H. E. Sampson, K.C., past president of the Alpine Club of Canada and crown prosecutor here, was reported as "quite satisfactory" by hospital officials to-day. He underwent an operation Monday.

W. F. Gettle, Wealthy Oil Operator, in Hands of Armed Desperadoes

Los Angeles, May 10.—Two masked men brandishing pistols matched William F. Gettle, forty-seven, wealthy oil man, from his newly-purchased estate in the foothills district of Arcadia at a midnight party, declaring "this is a kidnapping."

James Wolfe, a Westwood furniture dealer, was left bound and gagged and strapped to a tree on the estate. His wife freed him.

Gettle was abducted after a party of ten entertained at the estate of Mr. and Mrs. Gettle, residents of Beverly Hills, had left a swimming pool. Gettle and Wolfe had stopped in a small summer house to pull on trousers and shirts. A voice exclaimed: "Stick 'em up and be quick about it!"

Wolfe attempted to remonstrate, but the men cut him short. "No soft stuff," one snarled. "We're here for business. This is a kidnapping."

Gettle was taken away by car. The police are searching for the kidnappers.

Home Oil Company Registers in B.C.

For the first time, the Home Oil Company, which was organized and financed in Vancouver, has been properly registered to do business in British Columbia. It was originally a Dominion incorporation and its operations were in Alberta, so it did not take out registration and pay license fees in this province. Recently, however, the company has begun to buy mining stocks in British Columbia and has taken out a license as an extra-provincial company.

Pullet Lays 187 Eggs in 189 Days

Agassiz, B.C., May 10.—In 189 days of the Dominion Experimental Farm, egg-laying contest here, Barred Rock Pullet No. 9 has laid 187 eggs and accumulated 187 points. The Delta Land Company's bird has less points than Pullet No. 2, owned by A. Pennington of Agassiz, which has laid 186 eggs and compiled 184 points. The Pennington bird laid an exceptionally large, double-yoked egg on May 6 and missed on the following day.

LONGSHOREMEN IN PORTLAND CLASH

San Francisco, May 10.—A clash between striking longshoremen and non-union workers occurred to-day at Portland while waterfront employers in other Pacific Coast ports were endeavoring to recruit men to load idle ships tied up by the walkout.

Several men suffered minor injuries in a fist fight at Portland, where the strikers disabled three stages which were to have transported 100 men to the docks.

Not a single ship in Portland harbor was being worked, while 300 pickets patrolled the docks and several hundred strikers gathered at the waterfront.

TO CUT BRIDGE RIVER LUMBER

J. J. McFadden, Ontario Lumberman, Completes Plans For Mill

Foreseeing phenomenal mining development in British Columbia's newest gold field, James J. McFadden of Sprague, Ont., one of the biggest lumber operators in eastern Canada, announced here to-day that he has completed plans for the establishment and operation of a lumber mill at Bridge River.

Mr. McFadden has control of the bulk of the finest timber limits in the Bridge River region, where the Pioneer and Bralorne gold mines have in a large measure assisted in reviving mining interest in this province.

"Plans for the mill which I propose to erect at Bridge River have been completed, and construction will be proceeded with immediately," said Mr. McFadden in an interview at the Empress Hotel to-day. "The mill will be of sufficient capacity to meet the requirements of the Bridge River district, and as the mining industry is developed there the plant will be increased to keep pace with the demand for lumber."

INSULL BAIL NOT TO BE CUT

Chicago Judge Refuses to Reduce $200,000 Bond; Prisoner in Jail Hospital

Chicago, May 10.—Samuel Insull to-day was refused a reduction of the $200,000 bond under which he is held prisoner in the Cook County jail.

Judge Will M. Sparks of the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals said he felt the evidence did not entitle the seventy-four-year-old defendant to any lowering of the bond which Insull's attorney, Floyd E. Thompson, asserted was the highest ever demanded of a defendant in any United States court.

Thompson had brought his plea before Judge Sparks in a petition for a habeas corpus writ. Insull remained in the county jail hospital on charges of using the mails fraudulently and violating the bankruptcy act.

Forest A. Harness, special assistant attorney-general, told Judge Sparks the United States government would show frauds totaling $100,000,000 were committed in the mail fraud case and $2,000,000 was involved in the alleged misappropriation of assets in anticipation of bankruptcy.

SEVEN BOUND BY ROBBERS

Webb City, Mo., May 10.—Seven persons, including five women, were bound and gagged to-day by a gang of bank robbers, who took $14,000 from the Webb City Bank.

The robbers, said by the victims to number at least six, held the seven captive until the time lock on the vault opened.

MAJOR BACK FROM SOUTH

Reports Tourist Prospects Bright; Made Caveman and Crater Club Member

Prospects of increased tourist travel to Victoria this year from all parts of the Pacific Coast look bright, Mayor David Leeming, back to-day from a 2,152-mile motor trip which took him as far south as San Francisco, reported.

A general feeling of optimism was evident all over the coast, the mayor stated, as he spoke of his tour. Although he will appear at one or two functions, including the special Jubilee Hospital graduation service at First United Church to-night, he will not resume his robes of office for a short time. Alderman P. R. Brown will continue in the capacity of acting mayor.

In the course of his motor trip the city and the Puget Sounders and Mayor Leeming worked on behalf of the British Columbians Associated to encourage travel to this part of the coast. Several excellent contacts were made and a good flow of tourists to Victoria was indicated, he stated.

TRAGIC END OF WOULD-BE STAR

Swedish Understudy to Greta Garbo Ends Life in Hollywood

Associated Press
Los Angeles, May 10.—It is an old story in Hollywood, where make-believe tragedy often is not as realistic as that of life.

Sigurn Solvason, thirteen years of age, in her far-away native home in Iceland, dreamed of Hollywood. She believed all she read in the film magazines about how stars were elevated from the ranks of extras, from unknowns.

She saved her money. When she was sixteen she had enough for the fare to Hollywood. Yesterday, Sigurn Solvason, the wife of Fred Hesser, a mining man, was found dead in her studio apartment. Police said she had ended her life by swallowing poison.

Once an understudy of Greta Garbo, Mrs. Hesser, known on the screen as Rae Randall, had failed to reach the heights of fame to which she aspired.

Cecil B. De Mille had given her small parts in pictures.

Police said she apparently was without funds. The woman had then separated from her husband for the past six years. She came to Los Angeles from Winnipeg, Man., many years ago, stopping there temporarily in her journey to Hollywood.

Her husband said the desire for a career in the films wrecked their married life, and caused her death.

Girls Learn Of Holiday Camps

The regular meeting of the Tuckabatchee business girls' club of the First Baptist Church was held Tuesday evening at the home of the president, Miss Nora Gibson. There were thirty-two girls present. A very enjoyable evening was spent, a vacationland preview being the feature of the evening. Motion pictures were shown by Miss Lillian Parfitt depicting scenes at the Maple Lawn camp for girls at Sooke, and at the Keats Island Baptist camp, Howe Sound. The camp at Maple Lawn was described by Miss Wini Urquhart, incidental to the pictures. Miss Parfitt also gave a very interesting talk on Keats Island, describing the life at a camp there. Miss Margaret Freeman gave a short sketch of the new camp for girls being opened near Nanaimo this summer. This camp is known as "Moorecroft" and offers a wonderful opportunity for girls who desire to spend their vacation at an organized camp.

The last of a series of discussions was led by Mrs. W. P. Freeman, the subject for discussion being "Personal Work." At the close of her talk Mrs. Freeman was presented with a bouquet of spring flowers in appreciation for her work in leading the discussions during the past winter.

Refreshments were then served. During the evening plans were discussed for the garden party to be held by the club at the home of Mrs. J. E. Hamilton, Vining Street, on June 9.

BINGLING BROTHERS GET PICK OF THE CLOWNS

The performers in the Russian ballet attitudes are members of the Y.M.C.A.'s annual circus, to be held in the Horse Show Building Saturday evening. The gloomy personage on the extreme left is Jack Watson; the blushing dame with the muscular calves is Art Barber; the policeman, whose lot looks doubtfully happy, is Ralph Alecek, who has trained this department of the show. The "midget" in the back row is Cecil Hall, who stands six feet ten. The colored lady is Billy Mail, and the comic and tragic mimes on the extreme right are Harold McLean and Roy Berryman.

NOTED MEN ON AORANGI

Sir Percy Mackinnon and Sir William Marshall Expected Next Week

Sir Percy G. Mackinnon, chairman of the Peninsular and Oriental Line, member of the committee of Lloyd's Register of Shipping, and member of the board of the Scottish Australian Investment Company, who is on his way back to London from Sydney, N.S.W., is expected to reach Victoria May 17 by the motorliner Aorangi.

Sir Percy was chairman of Lloyd's up to last year and had been an underwriting member of the great shipping organization since 1895. He is also a former chairman of the British Salvage Association.

Another prominent traveler coming here aboard the Aorangi is Lieut. General Sir William R. Marshall, a British military officer with a brilliant record.

Sir William commanded the First Sherwood Foresters in France up to 1915, was divisional commander at Gallipoli, where he was present at landing and evacuation, and also commanded the Mesopotamia expeditionary force.

IRISH BUDGET SURPLUS REPORTED

Valera Government Tells Daily Margin For Year Is £1,355,000

Canadian Press from Havas
Dublin, May 10.—The Valera government had reported to the Dail today its second successive budget surplus, amounting to £1,355,000, of about $6,776,000.

In making the announcement, Finance Minister Sean MacEntee said receipts exceeded the most optimistic expectations of the government.

Automobiles had 185,000, motor cycles 287,000, tea $78,000, gasoline $57,000, machines $21,000. In each case the sums were higher than the original estimates.

The beer tax had been one of the biggest factors of all. It netted the government £270,000.

The public debt now stands at £17,000,000, an increase of £5,000,000.

The new budget estimates amount to £34,820,000. Existing taxes will furnish, it is expected, £23,282,000.

IS ABSENT-MINDED IN SIGNING CHEQUES

New York, May 10.—The distinguished Canadian featured in "The Shining Hour" is so absent-minded that he once signed a batch of cheques: "Yours very sincerely, Raymond Massey."

Glady Cooper, in the same show, is supposed to be England's most beautiful woman. She doesn't smoke, drink, dance, swear or eat candy. One of the things she likes to do is make a noise like a peacock.

There is a convention of celebrities in George M. Cohan's dressing room each evening, but among the visitors are some threadbare unknowns—actors seeking advice or very often, a touch. When Cohan shakes hands at the door they find themselves holdin' folded bills.

About the time "The Lake" closed here somebody asked one of the minor principals how the cast liked Miss Katharine Hepburn, who was the star—a star of some magnitude, but very distant. "We don't know," said the lady. "We have never met her."

MIS INSTRUCTIONS

Answering a question of counsel, Mr. Lea said that after he returned from the trip he had made to Montreal at the end of the first week of the market in 1931, his instructions were that the average price was to be brought down to less than twenty-four cents and the buyers had to purchase common and medium grades so as to bring the average down.

The average prices on the first four days of the 1931 market were 27.59 cents, 26.2 cents, 23.02 cents and 20.26 cents, witness said. Sixty-three per cent of the requirements of the Imperial Company had been bought in the first week of the 1931 season.

On the following market days, the average prices were 19.12 cents, 17.88 cents, 15.97 cents, 16.36 cents, 17.28

Prices For Tobacco Crop Are Inquiry Topic At Ottawa

Former Buyer For Big Company Says Ontario Figures Arranged in New York; No Dotation Says Later Buyer

Canadian Press

Ottawa, May 10.—Depressed prices for the 1932 Ontario tobacco crop were preceded by advice from New York that "they thought the price ought to be at 25 or 30 per cent less than that of the previous year," F. R. Gregory, formerly in charge of buying for the Imperial Tobacco Company of Canada in the southwestern Ontario fields, told the Stevens price spreads committee of the Commons yesterday.

The entry in 1931 of T. L. Lea, formerly of the Export Tobacco Company, purchasers in the United States for the British America Tobacco Company, into the Ontario district, had led to Lea gradually assuming charge of the operations. "I was ignored until I could not say who was in charge," said Mr. Gregory, who told of trying to get higher prices for the growers.

"I may have seen one woman weep," Mr. Lea answered a question when examined on reduced prices offered to growers in 1931. Witness indicated the incident might have been that of a Belgian woman, who had cried because twenty-eight cents was offered, considering the previous year's price was forty cents. Belgians were emotional, he suggested.

"Are they not human beings?" interjected Sam Factor, Liberal, Toronto West Centre.

They were the best people in the district and were good growers, replied Mr. Lea.

DENIES DICTATION
Emphatic denial was made by Mr. Lea that there had been dictation of prices by New York. The buying policy was settled by the executive of the Imperial Company in Montreal, who had tried to treat the growers most fairly, he said. The 1931 crop had been very large.

He had succeeded Mr. Gregory and was now manager of the Ontario Leaf Tobacco Company, a subsidiary of the Imperial Company. Witness admitted that R. I. Harrison of the British America Tobacco Company had registered with him in Tillsonburg, Ontario, in 1932.

LONDON TO ADD TO WATER SUPPLY

London, May 10.—A scheme which will ensure London against drought for at least fifteen years is to be inaugurated at a cost of some £10,000,000 as soon as Col. J. R. Davidson, new chief engineer of the metropolitan water board, takes up duty at the end of May.

"It is impossible to say at present what scheme will be evolved," says Sir William Prescott, chairman of the board. "It will probably mean two new reservoirs, one of which will certainly be in the Lea Valley."

There is no question of a shortage of supply; storage problems are those which have concerned us. London is growing at the rate of an average-sized county borough every year and we have had to increase our mains by ten miles a year for some time."

Trappers Lose Heavily In Big River Floods

Canadian Press

Fort Chipewyan, Alta., May 10.—Muddy waters of the rampaging Peace River are swirling, ten feet deep, over some of the finest trapping territory in the north, in inundated areas between Lakes Athabasca and Claire, and it is believed they have ruined the area for trapping for some years to come.

Although no human lives were lost, it is believed the loss of animal life will be heavy since the waters rose rapidly and fur-bearing animals, except those which frequent lakes and streams, had no chance to escape to higher ground.

While flood conditions have continued unabated, trappers are counting their losses, which, in addition to elimination of the usual heavy spring muskrat harvest, in many cases include winter catches swept downstream when diverside cabins were flooded and torn away.

Even if you haven't had such a serious operation as Mrs. A. B. Winnipeg. Manitoba, but know what it is to be afraid to eat for indigestion and gastric disorders, read what she says:

"Some time ago I underwent a serious operation, since when I got to the stage where I was afraid to eat knowing how I would suffer if I did. I tried many things, but since taking Saksal I am able to enjoy all the good things in life. I will never be without Saksal and will recommend it where possible."

Saksal is a Canadian product and may be obtained at Hudson's Bay Company, Victoria. Large 6 oz. jar, 60c. (Adv.)

FLOUR TAX IN AUSTRALIA ENDS

Government Believes Gains in General Revenue Justify Step

Adelaide, Australia, May 10.—The federal government has decided to repeal, as from May 31, the flour tax imposed last year in order to provide a bounty for wheat growers. Although this will result in a loss of $1,250,000 in revenue for the remainder of the fiscal year, the government is represented as being confident the general improvement in collections justifies the step. Australia has provided $15,000,000 this year in subsidies to wheat growers, and somewhat more than half of this sum was obtained through the flour tax, equivalent to between two and four cents a four-pound loaf. The subsidy is allocated to the various states on the basis of acreage sown. Payments on account of wheat growers in the fiscal year 1931-32 amounted to $10,000,000, and last crop season about $10,000,000 was paid out, making a total of $42,000,000. The money goes for reducing the cost of production, including transport and marketing, and providing for the needs of individual wheat growers.

Villagers of Westgate, England, will take a collection for the upkeep of the parish house, Rev. J. E. Perry pleading that "sooner or later we shall all want it."

ZION ILL. IS REORGANIZED

Wilbur G. Voliva Gives Orders That Are Surprise to His Church

Associated Press
Zion, Ill., May 10.—Proclaiming that Zion (Illinois) is the habitat of "more nuts" than any other city of its size, Wilbur Glenn Voliva, overseer of the religious colony that makes its headquarters here, today has ordered some drastic changes. First, he decreed that the taking of medicine and the smoking of a cigarette—each long regarded as high sins under his regime—were no longer to be regarded as venial. Then Voliva astounded his parishioners by declaring the entire church was reorganized—and the twelve "apostles" abolished. The official name, Voliva declared, was henceforth to be the Christian Catholic Church—not the Christian Catholic Apostolic Church.

CHINA RECONSTRUCTION REPORT BEFORE LEAGUE

Recommendations of Dr. L. Rajschman For Reconstruction of Country Made Public at Geneva

Geneva, May 10.—The League of Nations yesterday made public its suggestions for rehabilitation of China, which have been awaited with greatest interest in view of Japan's recent proclamation of her "Asia for Asiatics" policy. The League plan, contained in a report of Dr. Ludwig Rajschman, League representative, will be discussed by a committee of the League Council, May 14, when additional recommendations are expected. League officials admitted the recommendations of Dr. Rajschman for internal improvements and developments are political in that, they claim, the projects, if carried out, would transform China into an independent, unified nation. New Trade Pact Is Approved

Italian - Austrian-Hungarian Agreement to Be Signed To-morrow

Rome, May 10.—An Italo-Austro-Hungarian economic agreement, reached yesterday and will be signed tomorrow. It is based on reciprocal and preferential duties, a minimum export price accord, and an agreement between the three nations to purchase first quantities of certain products. Major points of the agreement are: Minimum export price accord—Austria agrees to buy Hungarian wheat at a price approximating 40 lire a quintal (about 92.5 cents) a bushel, a figure appreciably above the present export price. Hungary and Italy agree to buy Austrian lumber and wood pulp also at a price appreciably above the present internal price in Austria. The minimum export price accord is an effort to raise prices and increase the buying power.

NEW JAPANESE NAVAL OFFICIALS

Tokyo, May 10.—In a move to strengthen navy officers in preparation for the 1935 naval conference, the government today appointed Vice-Admiral Kyohei Hasegawa, an expert on naval limitation issues, as Vice-Minister of the Navy.

Admiral Hasegawa, a former delegate to the Geneva Disarmament Conference, succeeds Vice-Admiral Hisanori Fujita, who was shifted to the command of the Kure naval base.

Admiral Ryozo Nakamura, former commandant at Kure, was named chief of the naval construction bureau, responsibilities of which have been increased because of the Tomozuru disaster March 12 and the consequent changes in naval design. One hundred men died when the Tomozuru, a navy torpedo boat, swamped and overturned in heavy seas.

Toronto to Hear Prize Symphony

Toronto, May 10.—Wilfred C. James, manager of the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, announced yesterday evening Percival Price, Ottawa carillonist, has accepted an invitation that the orchestra play his "St. Lawrence" suite at the opening presentation of the 1934-35 season.

The invitation, Mr. James said, was made by Dr. Ernest MacMillan, conductor of the orchestra.

Price's "St. Lawrence" won him a Pulitzer scholarship valued at $1,500. It was rejected by the University of Toronto when Price submitted it as the means of obtaining his doctorate of music. Dr. MacMillan was a member of the committee that rejected the work.

CHANGES PLANNED IN MARKETING BILL

Amendments to Clarify Measure to Be Brought Before Commons; Liberals Stoutly Oppose Bill in Present Form

Ottawa, May 10.—Contemplated government amendments to the Marketing Bill involve no change in principle, and will come before the House of Commons to-morrow. The measure, consistently opposed by the Liberals, still stands in the committee stage without a single clause approved. The attitude of the opposition when the amendments are introduced will determine whether early progress will be made with the bill. Both houses stood adjourned today, Ascension Thursday.

It was during yesterday afternoon's discussion, Hon. Robert Weir, Minister of Agriculture, announced there would be a series of amendments to the marketing bill, clarifying it, but not changing its broad outlines.

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATION

Six provinces have passed companion legislation, announced the agricultural minister, surmounting the constitutional problems arising out of divided authority over trade. Three provinces, Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia and Alberta, had not made known their positions.

Provencher, a Liberal member for Provencher, was told by Hon. Hugh Guthrie, Minister of Justice, that the Dominion would have power, under the act, to force into a marketing scheme the minority growers in an industry who voted against it.

FISHERIES INDUSTRY

Several opposition members representing fishery ridings, Hon. Peter Veniot, Liberal, Gloucester, N.B., W. Neill, Independent, Comox-Alberni, Hon. Charles Marcell, Liberal, Bonaventure, Que., and Pierre Casgrain, Liberal, Charlevoix-Saguenay, Que., attacked the bill on the ground it would not help individual fishermen. The men who actually caught the fish, they argued, would not be asked to join a co-operative plan, but would be told what to do by the wholesalers, who would reap all the benefit.

MINISTER IN CHARGE

For the last fifteen minutes yesterday afternoon Liberals maintained an unsuccessful drive against the Minister of Agriculture to announce what minister would administer the act, the bill stipulating. It was argued the Minister of Agriculture would not be competent to administer a marketing scheme for fish products. To F. G. Sanderson, Liberal, South Perth, Ont., the minister said the flour milling industry would be treated as a producing industry, and would come under the act in exactly the same manner as any other industry.

F. W. Turnbull, Conservative, Regina, suggested that if the act proved unpopular to the fishermen they would not ask to be brought under it. That, said Mr. Veniot, was what he was afraid of. The wholesalers would set themselves up as primary producers of fish and would organize under the act, "thus tightening the hold they already have on the throat of the fishermen."

DANGER OF MONOPOLIES

Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, said there were opportunities under the bill for manufacturers of natural products to build up combines and monopolies. Certainly the House should not be asked to confer any such powers.

TWO KILLED IN HIGHWAY CRASH

Three Seriously Injured in Auto-truck Collision in Ontario

Those killed were: Vincent Kilgannon, twenty-eight, of Odessa, Ont., and Jack McGibbon, twenty-year-old teller of the Royal Bank branch at Odessa and driver of the car.

The injured: Oscar Heath, Thelma Aylesworth and Lewis Powley, all of Odessa and Vivian Clark of Moscow, Ont.

The Odessa youths were returning from Kingston to their homes along the highway when a storm of near cyclonic intensity broke. Sudden the transport loomed before the light touring car. NEW SERVICE BASIS URGED

Plunkett, Addressing Committee, Speaks For Temporary Federal Employees

Ottawa, May 10.—Representations on behalf of long-term temporaries in government employ were made before the Commons civil service committee yesterday by D. B. Plunkett, Conservative, Victoria; H. J. Barber, Conservative, Fraser Valley; A. C. Casselman, Conservative, Greenville-Dundas, Ont., and F. T. Shaver, Conservative, Stormont, Ont.

Mr. Plunkett asked the committee that some consideration be given to returned men working for the government but not forming part of the civil service. He suggested such temporarily employed men be made permanent after five years' service. He also suggested that after five years they be given a gratuity of $50; and at the end of ten years $200. He said in his constituency all the temporary employees were engaged in the Marine and Fisheries Department. They were doing the same work as men in the civil service, yet received no civil service privileges.

ALONG FRASER RIVER

There was a large number of temporary employees along the Fraser River who were doing good, and even dangerous work, said H. J. Barber, but who were prevented from becoming permanent because of the age limit for civil servants. He asked that some means be found for blanketing these men in the civil service, notwithstanding the age limit.

The cause of temporarily employed men in the Marine and Fisheries Department was upheld by Mr. Casselman.

J. Earl Lawson, committee chairman, said the committee was prepared to take the matter up and deal with the representations made.

The committee adjourned until Wednesday next.

UNITY IS URGED AMONG JAPANESE

Tokyo, May 10.—A picture of a hostile world arrayed against Japan was painted before the annual conference of prefectural governors yesterday by War Minister Uro Haysahi in a forceful plea for united national support of the army programme.

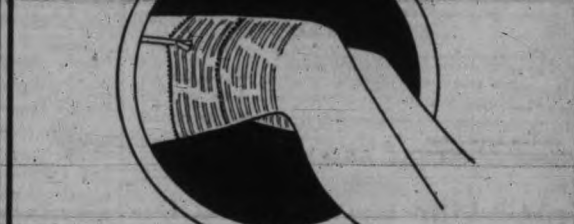

"Since Japan took action in Manchuria," General Haysahi declared, "the powers have regarded us with eyes of suspicion and mistrust. Today Japan is suffering the military and economic pressure of the powers, takes the ruin of the empire is as plainly visible as a column of flame."

WORK DIVERTED

Buffalo, May 10.—(Associated Press).—James H. One of the results of the walkout, he said, would be diversion of foreign orders to the company's factories in Canada and Europe.

HENRY AND HARRY

SIR HENRY DRAYTON AND HON. HARRY STEVENS are indulging in a verbal battle between themselves—a battle between two staunch Conservatives. Sir Henry recently toured the country as chairman of the national economy committee of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce and his job was to impress upon governments and the public generally the necessity of economizing in every way possible.

In an address in Montreal last Friday, Mr. Stevens is reported as saying: "It is a bit amusing to note that a distinguished gentleman who now represents the apostles of economy and government retrenchment was the Minister of Finance of the country when the expenditure was incurred."

"It is perfectly true," replies Sir Henry, "that during the period of debt increase I was responsible for two budgets, those of 1920 and 1921, but I am afraid no one can truthfully charge me with any responsibility either before or after." Also he points out that in 1919 the soldiers were being demobilized, and notes in detail the debt increases.

British Columbia's financial condition to-day has a very direct association with the budgets to which Sir Henry Drayton refers. In 1919, as he says, the soldiers were being demobilized; but the government of which Sir Henry was a most influential member had failed to make anything like adequate plans to meet a situation which was growing more serious from day to day. Demands for employment were being made on the Oliver government in Victoria by men who had returned to British Columbia from overseas, hundreds of whom had joined up in other provinces, but who had been attracted to the coast and had been demobilized here.

The provincial administration quite properly took the stand that the problem which had been presented to it was a national and not a local problem. But its presentations to the authorities at Ottawa were of no avail. Mindful of the fact that the men who were anxious to become absorbed into civil life and industry had suffered for their country, the province did what it could, as quickly as it could, and created the Department of Industries, afterward launching many other schemes solely in behalf of the returned men—to make up for the deficiencies of the Dominion Conservative government.

It is not too much to say that if the Ottawa administration, at the time Sir Henry Drayton was Minister of Finance, had accepted its responsibility and had acted with the courage and the vision which the conditions demanded, the financial plight of British Columbia would not have been anything like as serious as it is at the present time.

MORE ARTIFICIAL RESPIRATION

TO SAVE THE DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE from utter collapse, it is reported from London to-day that the United Kingdom is believed ready to stand for a disarmament agreement based on action over two five-year periods, but there seems to be some confusion as to what the cabinet really has decided to do. The suggestion is that in the first five years the armaments of the powers shall stand as they are now, and that in the next five years actual reduction of armaments shall be undertaken.

Geneva reports that information is reaching the League of Nations from many capitals showing that additional activity to increase military and naval power is plain to observe. Neither France nor Germany is making any bones about it. The attitude of Japan requires no emphasis. Indeed, a survey conducted by the League of Nations shows that only two nations, Great Britain and Switzerland, have decreased army strength. This is what the survey reveals:

France—Increased her fighting force within the last three years by 65,000 through employing civilians to do work formerly assigned to soldiers.
Germany—Increased her 1934 army and navy budget from $268,000,000 to about $359,000,000, and her aviation budget from $28,000,000 to $84,000,000.
Russia—Increased her army from 562,000 to 678,000 since 1932.
Japan—Increased land, naval and air forces by 100,000 to 456,000 since 1931.

Italy—Added 49,000 to her armed forces, chiefly through air and naval branch increases.
Poland—Raised her army from 200,000 to 341,000.
France's national defence programme for 1934-1935 is costing 13,500,000,000 francs—the largest since 1928. New armaments and fortifications are included in the army, navy and air budgets.
Belgium is building forts along the entire German border.
Poland and Czechoslovakia are rearing defences on the German frontier and Poland on the Russian side as well.

The United States is among the leaders in the building up of navies. Great Britain has built or authorized naval craft up to 94 per cent of treaty strength; Japan up to 98½ per cent.

It is a striking commentary on our so-called civilization, on the frequent protestations of national leaders that their one aim is peace, that after a Disarmament Conference has been sitting for more than two years a condition of affairs like the above should be possible. Yet these are the facts the world is compelled to face.

THREE GOOD MEN GONE

DEATH DURING THE WEEK HAS REMOVED from the local scene three men whose lives were valuable constituents of the life and spirit of the community itself.

Mr. John C. Newbury was a link with the early days of Victoria. He came as a four-year-old child with his parents from England and lived out the remaining seventy-one years of his life here. His record as a pupil in the old Collegiate and Central schools and in the Victoria High School was for years a criterion by which the ability of young Victorians to acquire knowledge was judged. For all who have passed through Victoria High since his day, there has stood out in golden letters from the large wall honor roll the name of J. C. Newbury as the first winner from the school of the Governor-General's medal. His brief teaching career saw him as principal of the now historic Craigflower School. After that he entered the Canadian Customs in which he served for forty-one years, during the last eighteen of which, as Collector of Customs, he was head of the department for this port. He was one of the first members of the Y.M.C.A. in this city. Among his many other associations here is recalled that with the B.C. Rifle Association in its early days. As one of the West's "crack shots," he went to Ottawa on the Association's team and won three trophies and other honors for his home town.

Mr. Robert C. Dinsdale also had a long and active career in this city. When he passed away last Tuesday, on his seventy-ninth birthday, he had completed an even half-century of residence in Victoria. During his early years he concentrated on his business as a construction contractor with energy and executive ability. Many buildings here, chief among them the imposing Victoria High School, testify to his skill as an organizer and builder. In his later years he found time to indulge his interest in public affairs. He served terms on both the School Board and the City Council. There was a revelation as to his personality in the saying at the City Hall that Victorians would continue to elect Mr. Dinsdale as long as he chose to run.

The Rev. Hugh Nixon was not an old-time Victorian, but during his ministry on this island since 1924, first at Nanaimo and then at Fairfield United Church here, his idealism and enthusiasm combined to make him a constructive force in the field of social welfare. He was a past president of the Victoria Ministerial Association. His work among boys and girls was notably successful. Contacts in the early days of his ministry in villages and cities of Manitoba and Saskatchewan were productive of associations that proved enduring, pleasant and helpful later when he and so many of the men and women he had known on the prairies came to Victoria to live.

THE OUTLAW AND SENTIMENT

DILLINGER AND HIS OUTLAW GANG are still at large, apparently in the United States, and seem to be able to carry on their nefarious business without a very great deal of difficulty. But the business of a notorious and badly-wanted gunman can not be very much fun. On the surface, the life seems to have a veneer of romance and excitement. Underneath, it must be very much more nerve-racking than it is worth. Every car that approaches may carry the end of everything behind its windshield. Every sudden noise at night may be the signal for the last spatter of bullets. Every stranger who comes near may be Nemesis; every tiny accident may be the break that will destroy the whole scheme.

Under all this there is nothing but complete futility. For by this time all plan and all reason have left the fugitives' campaign. Originally there was some sort of pattern to this life of sudden forays and mad, reckless flights. It was a way of life that might be dangerous and desperate, but there was a more or less regular rhythm in it. But it has changed into an aimless, helter-skelter chase that can have no end, a melodrama that can not finally resolve itself into peace and quiet, but that must be carried on until some more accurate burst of gunfire finally brings down the last curtain.

There is another side—not a very elevating side—to the case of this desperado, murderer, robber, and all-round rat. It is a side which a section of the public has taken. For example, the people of his home town have actually circulated a petition calling on the governor of Indiana to give him amnesty. He has won their admiration, and it is fairly obvious that they want to see him continue to foil the law and escape punishment.

It is difficult to understand why this should be. Why should any people in the United States want to build up a romantic Robin Hood legend about a low-browed criminal whose sole distinction seems to be that he is one of the most vicious thugs unchanged? Dillinger, of course, is more like a throwback to the bad men of the old West. He has traded shots with his victims in the old-time style, and risked his neck aplenty in his forays. As a result, he has been built up into an impossible character; a sort of combination of Jesse James, Billy the Kid and Robin Hood, for whom law-abiding citizens are willing to sign petitions asking clemency.

This is a queer and very foolish mistake. For when all has been said and done, Dillinger is a menace to public safety, a homicidal freak who deserves neither admiration nor sympathy. The silly sentimentality that tries to make a hero out of such an individual is as brainless a display as anybody could make.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

DANGEROUS SELF-SUFFICIENCY
The Hamilton Spectator

Supposing that every nation could become self-sufficient, maintaining its own standards, rigidly excluding imports and forbidding exports of manufactured goods, what gain would there be in that? In the first place, consumers would have to give up many desirable commodities, for considerations of climate forbid domestic production in a number of cases. Secondly, since such complete reliance would be placed on mechanical services, the unemployment situation would, instead of being relieved, become more acute than ever.

UNDER DICTATORSHIP
The Toronto Globe

The U.S.S.R. authorities at Moscow announce that a sweeping economy programme for both Soviet Government and industry will be put into effect immediately, the aim of the state being a reduction of administrative and office expenses this year of 735,000,000 rubles. Workers' functions are to be dispensed with, for one thing. From Rome also comes news of an attempt to reduce the annual deficit of more than 3,000,000,000 lire by making a general reduction in the salaries of state employees. Communism and Fascism alike seem to be afflicted with the ills that are worrying the more orthodox lands, and all are applying or considering the old proven medicine of economy.

Ottawa and Its Politics

Toronto and the west—A shattering idea—What politicians say—and then the intelligentsia.

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

IN OLD TORONTO they used to treat the westerner kindly but firmly, as they might treat a poor old aunt from the country, who isn't quite right in the head. Now, since Mr. Pattullo and Mr. McGeer gave Ottawa a brief attack of financial jitters, they treat you in Toronto all the more firmly, all the more as if you weren't quite right in the head, through no fault of your own. You get used to it after a day or so, and once you have stopped trying to prove the obvious fallacy that there is a country called Canada lying somewhere west of Lake Ontario, you and Toronto get on quite well together.

I hadn't been in Toronto half an hour before I was quarrelling with the editor of one of Canada's most important magazines and enjoying it immensely. "What in Hades," said the Toronto editor (thus disproving the ancient theory that Torontonians are all too holy to use such wicked language), "what do you fellows out in British Columbia think you're trying to get away with? You're down here with Pattullo, aren't you, trying to get eight million bucks? Well, where is the money coming from? Why should you fellows here have to shell out eight million bucks for B.C.?"

"Now listen," said I boldly, because I had nothing to sell this editor and was feeling pretty tough after two weeks of higher politics at Ottawa, "now, listen. I don't believe that you or more than a hundred people in Toronto know what eight million bucks mean."

"I don't believe you know what money is."

And this was quite true. They don't. They still think money means something. But, you mustn't be too hard on them. They didn't hear Gerry McGeer explode all those theories completely before the banking committee of Parliament. Despairing of ever being able to explain what money is to an editor of a national magazine, I clutched him by the throat and rammed this fact down it: "Do you know what an automobile is? I will concede that you do know what it is. Well, we have about 80,000 of them out in B.C. At least I, for one, was really a very good fellow even if he seldom strained his intelligence, you will see that 300 times 80,000 makes just $24,000,000. Does it occur to you that this is a pretty husky amount of money for us to send down here to you, in addition to the ordinary price of the cars?"

"By gosh, I guess that's right," said the great editor profoundly.

"Yes, and out there we wear clothes and shoes, when we can," said I. "If you will sit down and figure out what we pay on them to keep you going you will find the calculation interesting. And we sell nearly all our stuff, not here, but in cheap world markets."

"Well, sir, I never thought of it that way," said he. "I tell you what you do. You write me an article on that—it'll be an entirely new idea."

"No more I, for he was really a very good fellow even if he seldom strained his intelligence, you will see that 300 times 80,000 makes just $24,000,000. Does it occur to you that this is a pretty husky amount of money for us to send down here to you, in addition to the ordinary price of the cars?"

"Yes," I said meekly, "I can see just how you have suffered for your generosity." From his window I could see across the smoky jungle of Toronto's great industrial chimneys rising above the mists which make your clothes, shoes, radio, toothpaste and beer bottles, and further north the endless stretch of rich stone houses that surge out into the green Ontario countryside, springing up everywhere like mushrooms.

So we went away from there, down the fastest elevator in the world, where it is bad manners, apparently, for gentlemen to remove their hats in the presence of ladies, while in Ottawa, a more backward village, the custom is just the opposite. At the bottom of the elevator we found the other side of Toronto, the cold, intelligent, and unimpressed.

The intelligentsia, clustered about Toronto's University, takes itself pretty seriously. It is glad to welcome a wild man from the west, glad to hear that the west is strong, but secretly it knows that the best thinking in Canada is done right here in Toronto. And they are wonderful lads, these Canadian intellectuals, can talk to you all night about Spengler's "Decline of the West" with a cool, calm, and collected westerner's pretty definitely with the decline, and can tell you exactly what is going to happen to the economic and political of Canada.

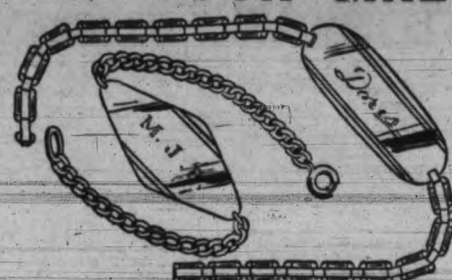

"What you haven't realized," said the intellectual, "is that the fight to decide whether we are to have a controlled form of society or freedom for business and the individual already has been decided. Rightly or wrongly it has decided in favor of control. The only question to be settled is who will do the controlling—Parliament or big business. That's the only fight left. But, of course, you politicians and newspapermen are still grappling with the question already decided, as you always do."

THE LOGGERS' STRIKE

To the Editor:—Good news! The loggers' strike is settled and again one of our industries is actively operating. The unfavorable results from such forced idleness all know, for the fewer strikes the less business suffers.

Most of us are aware the laborer is worthy of his hire, and unions have been a great boon to their cause. I am in sympathy with all legitimate efforts which benefit the living conditions of our citizens, as the better the living conditions, the higher ideals of citizenship is a result.

I am not in a position to know all the causes which lead up to this last cessation of work at the logging camps, but I did grow suspicious of the possibility that the operators of logging in the State of Washington, U.S., might have been responsible to a great extent, for the loss of time and work—also the loss of lumber orders being filled here. This is not a new angle to labor troubles, as operators of mines in the neighboring state, have in years gone by organized just such trouble among the miners in British Columbia, thus keeping our men out of employment while they, the operators, took advantage, doubling their output and benefiting business in general in that state.

I venture to suggest the master minds looking for a market for the surplus logs lying idle at their mills, aware as they would be that B.C. mills having secured foreign orders for lumber was an opportune time to rig themselves in Washington of the very logs we sold them when times were good. The strike was on so back the logs came. Then suddenly discovering the agreement with the Mother Country called for Canadian lumber manufactured from Canadian logs, "presto" and the strike was soon settled.

I might say our miners learned their lesson long since as to why they were called out on strike on several occasions. I hope if my suspicions are correct and indeed I would like to think I was wrong, our loggers will have learned it is not up to them to quit work in order to benefit the operators of mills in Washington. I am not unmindful sometimes labor must, in order to get something (Turn to Page 18, Col. 1)

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By ALINE MICHAELIS

LIFE IS SO FULL

Ah, life is so full and life is so good! If I dwell deep in the thickest wood, where I feel the sun and the sky, I should never tire through the long years there. For the richness of life is everywhere. In winter I'd watch all the shy, furred things. While I'd hear how fiercely the north wind I'd learn strange secrets of squirrel and bird. And I'd find warm lairs hidden back of the rocks. My sun-dried corn with a starving deer I'd share when it grew too weak for fear. I would read the story that summer brings. Till it strengthened and left me alone again. And in springtime I'd feel the surging flood Of sap as it rose in each leaf and bud. I would read the story that summer brings With its fruits and blossoms, its myriad things. Joys would throng about me, a multitude. For life is so full, life is so good!

C.C.F. ACTIVITIES ON SALT SPRING

Ganges, May 10.—The Mahon Hall was well filled Monday evening at a meeting sponsored by the Ganges study group of the C.C.F. J. Neil Smith, Vice-president, was chairman. The speakers were J. Price, M.P.P., provincial secretary of the C.C.F. group movement, and Dave Thomas, graduate of U.B.C. and president of the Federated Council of Youth.

Mr. Price gave an outline of the activities of the Legislature during the session and suggested that the C.C.F. could be used as a medium of bringing down legislation to be of benefit to the people of the province, but was of the opinion that a real change of the economic order was the only solution of the problem. Mr. Thomas described the aims and objects of the youth movement, and declared himself as being definitely opposed to the youth of the present line being shouldered with an obligation for which they had no responsibility in creating. He stated that the movement which he sponsored was of a definite co-operative activity and would replace the antiquated profit system at present in force. A buffet supper was served by the ladies of the C.C.F. group movement and a dance followed.

The record number of six candidates may be entered in the rectorial election of Glasgow University, Glasgow, Scotland, when Compton Macenzie retires next October.

THE VICTORIA DAILY TIMES

May 10, 1909

(From The Times Files)

The new home of the Y.M.C.A. will stand on the northeast corner of Blanshard and View Streets, across from St. Andrew's Cathedral. This decision was reached by the building and site committee on Saturday night after a discussion of the merits of some dozen different properties.

Work will be commenced next week upon a large addition to the E. and N. railway depot at Duncan. Business has increased to such an extent there that the present station is now entirely too small, and the present building will be almost doubled in size.

The formation of a new provincial senior amateur lacrosse league was accomplished on Saturday in Vancouver, when delegates from New Westminster, Victoria and Vancouver met in the V.A.C. board rooms. The election of one team to represent Victoria fell on the Victoria team, which was represented by Leo Sweeney, as against S. O'Neil and D. Tait, of the Victoria West Athletic Association.

A great many people will be interested in the sale which is advertised to take place at Craigdarroch, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dunlop, as against S. O'Neil and D. Tait, of the Victoria West Athletic Association. The household effects are to be put up by auction by H. W. Davies and Sons of this city.

TRADE MOVES WATCHED HERE

Economic Council Studies Effects of World Tariff Changes on B.C.

Because of its wide interest in world markets, British Columbia, through its Economic Council, is keeping well abreast of the rapidly-changing tariff and trade moves among the great trading nations of the world.

A fact study, based on information secured directly from industries concerned, has been launched as a means of following closely the repercussions which the trade moves will have on British Columbia products. This study is being approached from three angles: the effect of protective tariffs on cost of production; the effect on B.C. exports, and the nature of retaliatory tariffs.

Special attention is being devoted to the British market, where a new policy is in the making which may have a direct bearing on this province. In recent months British Columbia's trade position has been brought very much to the fore, because it depends so much on substantial exports of its natural products.

With the great nations going in for nationalization of their marketing and national bargaining, the need for keeping closely in touch with affairs is paramount.

Organization if Started; Would Bring Class Under Minimum Wage Law

Sponsored by the legislative committee of the Victoria and District Trades and Labor Council, a move was launched Tuesday evening to have domestic servants included in the provincial Minimum Wage Act.

Women interested in the problem attended a meeting in the Trades and Labor Hall and aired their views. It was decided to call another meeting on May 18 to go more fully into the matter.

Payment of domestic help by the hour instead of the week or month was one suggestion advanced.

A distinct code for this class of labor was urged, reference being made to the need for some kind of a sliding scale which would permit of wages governed by the kind of work done and the number of hours a person was employed.

An instance was cited of two girls working in a large boarding establishment, who put in ten and a half hours a day and received only $3 a week, when there were eight regular boarders in the place paying an average of $40 a month.

The groundwork for formation of an organization of domestic servants has been laid but no action will be taken along this line until a general committee has been struck and returns made to a questionnaire sent out by the secretary.

CIRCUS HAS ONLY DONKEY

"Dynamite" Is Latest Addition to Staff of Bingling Bros.

Believed to be the only four-legged specimen of his race on Vancouver Island, Dinny (sort for Dynamite), the donkey is the latest addition to the assets of Bingling Brothers' circus, the Y.M.C.A.'s big annual event which will take place Saturday evening, and which, incidentally, seems in danger of being sold out several days ahead of the performance.

Dinny is being lent to the circus by Mrs. R. Strong of Sooke, who has come into contact with the Y.M.C.A. during its annual boys' camp.

Dinny is guaranteed to buck it supplied with oats. The clowns will shortly ascertain by experiment the exact ration of bucks to oats.

The need for cohesion among the million primary producers of Canada was stressed by C. R. Hayden, editor of Country Life, and former managing editor of The Calgary Herald, in a short talk before the Saanich Fruit-growers' Association at its meeting Tuesday evening.

The meeting decided to adopt The Country Life magazine as the official organ of the association, which means an addition of about 160 new subscriptions.

No government in the Dominion could withstand the demands of a united movement of primary producers, said Mr. Hayden.

The need for continued full backing of the Marketing Act now before the House of Commons, through Country Life, he intimated, a powerful primary producers' lobby having been built up and would be heard from in the future.

Another visiting speaker was C. R. Wilson, secretary of British Columbia Coast Growers, Fraser Valley organization. Mr. Wilson spoke on growing conditions in the Fraser Valley.

Records Point to Exceptionally Early and Fruitful Crops This Year

The wonderfully mild weather and warm spring have brought on crops which promise to be the largest in the history of the valley, say reports received by Victoria fruit and vegetable wholesalers from the Okanagan.

In the field of small fruits, the advance is expected to be as much as three months over last year.

Reports from Oliver state that the apricots there are already an inch and a quarter in diameter. The fruit is expected to be ready for shipment by the middle of June, and the season promises to be the best ever seen in the apricot market, with prices really attainable by the housewife.

Cherries are stated to be as big as a dime already, and will be ready for shipment by the beginning of next month. Cucumbers and cantaloupes are growing rapidly, and have pushed their way through the hot-kaps. Cantaloupes should be on the market from the Okanagan earlier than ever before.

By every indication the coming summer promises to be one of the best ever seen in the city from the point of view of both the housewife and the wholesaler.

Your Baby and Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

HOW CAN MOTHER TELL WHEN CHILD IS SICK?

Mothers are inclined to feel that tragic events may happen unless they are adequately prepared to meet every emergency. To this end they read books detailing the symptoms of various children's diseases and hope to be able to remember them when the emergency presents itself.

USUALLY A FEVER

One mother, whose baby obviously has never been ill, wanted me to tell her how she could detect signs of illness. In general, almost any illness a child may suffer is accompanied by fever. In order to measure fever accurately one should possess a rectal thermometer and learn how to use it and read it. This does not mean that one should take baby's temperature daily and treat baby's every variation from normal as a symptom of illness. It is time enough to take a baby's temperature when he develops symptoms of illness.

Sick children do not act like well children. They are fretful, disinclined to eat, may vomit food if it is given to them, want to sleep or be held, will not play, look dull-eyed and languid. These actions should arouse the mother's suspicions. Temporarily she may do nothing but offer the child more water, and no food or tea food. She may put him to bed and watch him for signs of increasing illness or improvement.

CALL PHYSICIAN

If he does not improve in several hours then she should shift the responsibility to her doctor, who can determine how ill the child may be, and the nature of the ailment.

To fill one's mind with symptoms of illness is to see those symptoms baby's most commonplace behavior. Yet one may be ignorant of all symptoms and never know one disease from another and still be prepared when the emergency arises to recognize that baby is ill and needs medical attention.

Lady Aberdeen's Appeal Quoted at League of Nations' Tea Yesterday

Lady Aberdeen's appeal to the women of the world to support the League of Nations was the nucleus of a strong body of public opinion to outlaw war, was quoted by A. S. Averill, secretary of the local branch of the League of Nations Society in Canada, in his interesting address yesterday afternoon. Mr. Averill was addressing the guests who attended the annual League of Nations tea held under the auspices of the Victoria Women's Institute at their headquarters, Yates Street.

CALL TO MOTHERS

The article, entitled "A Call to the Mothers of All Races," written by Lady Aberdeen in her capacity as president of the International Council of Women, was read, in part as follows:

"At this time the nations of the world have a vision presented to them of two alternatives. On the one hand, a perfected League of Nations to which all nations shall belong, and to whose decision all nations shall bow; or, on the other hand, new wars from which all the old halo of glory and heroism has been removed, for men of science have given us a glimpse of the hellish methods by which great cities can be destroyed in a few hours, if not minutes—and civilian populations can be deprived of food and water and means of transport; or have deadly diseases disseminated amongst them—and civilization itself can be wiped out."

COMMON POLICY OF TRUST

"And yet the nations seem to hesitate on the brink of this awful precipice—they seem helpless to avert the growing danger of armed peoples, so averse are they to relinquish any cherished national rights and fancied national security in favor of a common policy of trust in one another which would ensure security for all."

"They call impatiently for leaders to preserve them from the impending dread disaster to the human race. Does not this constitute a great call to the womanhood of the world? To the mothers, and the potential mothers, of all races, to fly to the rescue of the future generations of whose life they are at once the originators and the protectors?"

Mr. Averill then showed, chiefly from what he had himself seen, how war, modern war, which is entirely different from the old fairy sporting and chivalrous war of the history books, is sheer murder and the greatest enemy to the health, happiness and prosperity of mankind. He also pointed out that Canada, because of her world trade, cannot possibly keep herself out of any great war.

The speaker declared that armaments gave no security, and that the only way to prevent war is by working in and through the League of Nations. The League now is but a child, he stated, and public opinion must bring pressure to bear on their respective governments so that they quickly bring this child to its majority; then, and not until then, the spectre of war would disappear. It had settled over thirty quarrels which might have led to war and had actually stopped five wars after they had begun. It had got together the Disarmament Conference and kept it in being for two years so far. In itself a great achievement, this—to get sixty nations to even come to a conference to discuss disarmament.

ECONOMIC BOYCOTT

No real measure of disarmament had yet been achieved by this conference because the most vulnerable nations demanded security first; and this was a natural demand, Mr. Averill stated. The Covenant of the League had provided for security by the sanctions contained in article 16. These sanctions, in a word, provide for an economic boycott by all members of the League against any aggressor nation. Mr. Averill stated that the League had provided for security by the sanctions contained in article 16. These sanctions, in a word, provide for an economic boycott by all members of the League against any aggressor nation.

In the evening the visitors had given a puppet show, had also attended the special service held by the Guides at the cathedral on the following day.

In her report of the concert held in the Criddle Memorial Hall, Mrs. Pritchard announced that the result had been an addition of approximately $42 to the fund.

Hearty congratulations were offered to the First Victoria West Ranger Company on having secured for the fifth time the prize for English country dancing at the musical festival, and to the Gonzales Brownie Pack, who took second place in the junior section of the B.C. dramatic festival, with the prize-winning play specially written for them by Miss Eugenie Perry.

National Credit Control Discussion in the United States

Controlled economy as impractical without the control of credit.

"I am not much concerned with this talk of silver, copper and so forth," Mr. Cutting said, "because money is only a small matter compared with credit. That is to say, the credit in use today, the actual circulating medium of exchange, is not as important as the credit that is being created by the banks and the government. It is this credit that is the real factor of credit which we must control."

PINION OF NEW DEAL

Senator Cutting believes frankly that the whole Roosevelt experiment, the entire attempt to erect a planned economy, must fail because while it controls results like production, prices and so forth, it does not control the chief cause of modern economic changes, namely the distribution and management of credit.

Curiously enough, the Cutting plan also follows Mr. McGreggor's lead to private merchant banking. He would nationalize credit to finance government, but would not nationalize ordinary banks which invest depositors' money and do not create credit simply by book-keeping entries as is the practice of banks now.

Mr. Cutting's statement to the present forecasting failure of the New Deal if it does not nationalize credit is all the more significant since he, though a Republican label, supported President Roosevelt and the general programme of his administration.

He was offered the post of Secretary of the Interior, but declined, wishing to remain in the Senate. Mr. Cutting was intensely interested to learn that a school of Canadian economists and politicians is thinking along his own lines. He said he would obtain and read carefully Mr. McGreggor's speech before the parliamentary banking committee.

The Senator's plan is to get his bill into the Senate before the end of the present session. He will push it through one of the most important questions before America today—a question which in one form or another, is agitating all nations at present.

It is doubtful the Cutting bill will be finally disposed of this session, but it will be pushed ahead through Congress next year.

Meanwhile, it was evident at President Roosevelt's press conference attended to-day that the administration is working on the same basic problem along different and more cautious lines, the greater control of medium of exchange and creation of new purchasing power by new use of money as backing for currency.

The President is believed to have reached a compromise with the western silver bloc which is fighting to nationalize silver. But then who knows Mr. Cutting in the United States and Mr. McGreggor in Canada hold that extra control and the use of credit possible with the mere use of money as a monetary base is quite adequate.

In the United States, the Cutting school asserts nothing but nationalization of government credit will be adequate to finance the enormous expenditure of the New Deal, while in Canada the McGreggor school insists the government cannot produce a real return to prosperity by its foreign trade on a sound basis without this fundamental step.

In any case, the new credit idea apparently will develop on a basis in the United States, but whether the final result may be different.

SILVER TALK TO CONTINUE

U.S. Secretary of Treasury Tells Senators Government Ready For Discussions

Washington, May 10.—Secretary of Treasury Henry Morgenthau has reported to President Roosevelt the results of his senatorial silver conference, and has notified interested senators the United States treasury is ready to continue discussions.

White House expressions naming a building of a 25 per cent silver serve as an ultimate objective, but saying methods of acquiring silver by the President were reiterated by Mr. Morgenthau.

He said no definite engagement has been made for another meeting with senators but he was ready to meet them at any time they should make the request.

IN THE DAYS BEFORE HORSES—A fire meant something in the old days in Victoria and the boys instead of chasing the wagons as they do now went and hooked themselves on to the hose-reel and towed it to the fire. Victoria had one of the smartest hose-reel teams on the coast and won numerous competitions on May 24 and other holidays from neighboring towns. Some of those in the above picture are still living here. From left to right the team is as follows: Richard Dodd, Alfred Cave, Harry McEneaney, Wesley Harper, Richard Crook, John Sewell, Jimmie Harper, Stewart Rutan (Unknown), George Clayton, Will Dodd, Ernie Harper, Robbie Williams and Joe Lismore.

WELL BOWLED SIR!—This picture was taken at the Canteen Grounds, Esquimalt, when they had grandstand accommodation for visitors and the British squadron had some jolly good cricketers. In the background are the destroyers Virago and Sparrowhawk, which held the record from Victoria to Vancouver for many years, and the famous H.M.C. Warspite.

INDUSTRY HAS REPLACED THE WAX CANOE—Only the old-timers will recall this scene. It was taken in the heyday of the Songhees tribe, when their reservation was the present Industrial Reserve. The Sidney Roofing and Paper Company has developed a thriving industry where the Indians once lived and held their wild potlaches.

HONK! HONK!!—These were the days when a honk meant something in the automobile business. The big rubber bulb on the end of a tube was vigorously squeezed to produce a warning. In the above picture we have a turnout of Victoria's automobiling gentry nearly thirty years ago and included in the procession are White Steamers, Ramblers, Humbers, and Rovers, makes of cars one seldom sees to-day. Most of the cars were wide-open but if you were sport enough to put a top on your car it was something like the covering of an old-fashioned baby-buggy. Take note of the third. The front car is driven by the late Capt. J. W. Troup and beside him is the late Thomas Pimley. Next in line is the late Col. J. A. Hall, Dr. A. J. Garesche, the late Fred Moore, the late J. A. Barnsley, the late Luke Pither and Mrs. Pither, Dr. Nelson and Mr. Stevenson.

A FASHIONABLE WEDDING IN 1893—When the late Thomas Corsan married Miss Maude Higgins, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Higgins, in Reformed Episcopal Church, the whole town turned out. At that time Mr. Higgins was Speaker of the Legislature. Rt. Rev. Bishop Cridge conducted the ceremony. The wedding was a pretty one. There was a full choral service, the anthem being "Behold How Great and Good a Thing Is for Brethren to Dwell Together in Unity."

The bride's dress was a white brocade, trimmed with lace and orange blossoms. She carried a beautiful shower bouquet, the gift of Mrs. P. T. Johnson. The bridesmaids wore dresses of pink chiffon, hats trimmed with pink roses. They carried large shower bouquets of pink and white roses, which with gold and pearl brooches, were presents from the groom. Those in the above picture are as follows: The late Mrs. James Raymur, formerly Miss Elizabeth Higgins; the late William R. Higgins, the late James Raymur, Mrs. William Higgins, formerly Miss Dolly Heincken; the late Mrs. D. W. Higgins, Alan Cameron, Miss Dolly Lowen, Dr. Corsan, the bride and bridegroom; Senator G. H. Barnard, Joseph E. Wilson, the late George Powell, Herbert Rogers, Frank Higgins, K.C.; the late Constance Jones; Mrs. David Dolg, formerly Nonie Powell, and E. E. Wootton. The children sitting in the front are Arnold Raymur, the late Miss Jessie Galletly and Miss Nest Claxton.

THE STREAM-LINED MODEL OF THIRTY YEARS AGO—Twenty-five years ago when David Porter boasted this smart turn-out he was envied as much as the man with the latest stream-lined car to-day. But to think that Dave should have the seat beside him vacant.

NEW EASTER BONNETS—Here we have the present Mrs. A. Knowles, 1213 Wharf Street, and Mrs. George Scott of Esquimalt ready to drive down the main drag in 1911. Their trim black mare, well-fitting harness and rubber-tired buggy shows the interest the girls in those days took in the general appearance of the turnout.

BEER BY THE GLASS!—In the days of horse and buggy no one thought of seeing how far they could get from town. Five or ten miles was plenty and then you could find a nice quiet spot where the old grey mare could have a feed of grass and the party could eat and drink in comfort.

PLUMBERS RAP BOARD

School Officials Criticized For Failing to Call For Tenders on Work Here

A protest on the action of the Victoria School Board in purchasing plumbing equipment for the Boys' Central School without calling for tenders on the open market was lodged by William Thacker, representing the Victoria Sanitary and Heating Engineers, yesterday evening at the regular monthly meeting of the board.

Mr. Thacker said he understood that part of the work, involving the largest expenditure, was handed over without competition, while tenders were called for the smaller work. He pointed out his association represented taxpayers and license holders. No economy was effected by the course, he declared.

The trustees explained they were under the opinion the equipment could be secured only from one firm, but would govern their decisions differently in the future.

A request from Victoria High School for new books for the school library was referred to the finance committee with the recommendation that $250 be spent on them.

CHANGE HOURS

In conformity with the rest of the city, it was decided to change the school board office hours to have the office open at 8:30 o'clock in the morning and close at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon, with a half-holiday on Saturday from May 15 to September 15.

An expression of appreciation was voiced by the trustees to the members of teaching staffs who had assisted in preparing the school children for the recent musical festival. A resolution was also passed thanking Sergeant Arthur Bishop of the City Police for his lectures promoting safety in traffic among the children.

An increase of $380 was shown in the summary of April expenditures over those of the same month last year, the difference being made up in an increase in money spent on buildings and grounds. This year

HERE-THERE-EVERYWHERE GOODYEARS COME FIRST!

Public preference for Goodyears was proved 44 times in 1933.

Investigators recorded the makes of tires on thousands of cars gathered at hockey games, race meets, golf tournaments, the Canadian National Exhibition and other important events.

Every tire—back, front and spare—on every car was carefully tabulated, and in every survey Goodyear Tires far outnumbered every other make. The public could not speak its preference for Goodyear Tires more emphatically, more clearly!

Next time you see a lot of parked cars, glance along the rows of tires. Goodyear! Goodyear!! Goodyear!!! You'll see for yourself that Goodyears are obviously first choice—the leading tire.

SEEK CLOTHES FOR CHILDREN

Friendly Help Issues Urgent Appeal in Announcing Old Clothes Week

Sympathetic Victoria mothers, who are busy at this time of year replenishing the wardrobes of their own boys and girls, will experience a real headache at the announcement of the Friendly Help Welfare Association that there are children of school age who will not be able to continue their schooling if shoes and adequate clothing are not provided immediately.

The Citizens' Unemployment Relief Fund (otherwise known as the Mayor's Fund) was created to meet the clothing needs of unemployed citizens. When this fund was nearing exhaustion, it was handed over to the Friendly Help Welfare Association. This fund has now been spent, and the association is facing the grave possibility of being unable to meet the demands made upon it. In former years, a considerable amount of good clothing was donated to the Friendly Help, but the continued financial depression has resulted in great lowering both in the quantity and the quality of this source of supply.

No provision was made for the purchase of new clothing when the Friendly Help Welfare Fund was drawn up, as this phase of the work was in the hands of the Mayor's Fund; moreover, the drive for funds fell considerably short of its objective, consequently no funds are now available for this purpose.

OLD CLOTHES WEEK

The week beginning May 14 has therefore been set aside by the association as "Old Clothes Week." Citizens are urged to consider the needs of their less fortunate neighbors and go through their cupboards and clothes presses to clear out anything usable which they can possibly spare. At this time of year most people are replenishing their wardrobes and can more easily give without stress to themselves. It should be borne in mind that money put into circulation by the purchase of new clothing at this time is also an important step in the upward trend of business.

Since the redistribution of clothing is greatly expedited by garments being clean and in a fair state of repair, the association asks the donors will see they are in fit condition before sending. Contrary to the opinion of one worthy citizen, who remarked that people were too proud to wear patches as their parents often did, it would be more true to say that most deserving applicants do not mind the patches if they are there. But, too often people do not bear in mind that many mothers actually are unable to provide even the patches.

At any time during business hours clothing may be sent to 1224 Pandora Avenue, or by telephoning G 7194 arrangements can be made to have parcels called for. The most urgent need at the moment is for any clothing suitable for schoolchildren, and for men.

PIANISTE AND DANCER PLEASE

Two Young American Women Wind Up New Deal Series at Empress Hotel

Not often do such widely different composers as Bach, Brahms, Mozart, Chopin, Scriabine, Debussy, Schoenberg and Gershwin appear on the same programme, yet this was the case yesterday evening in the combined piano and dance recital of the young American artists, Miss Frances Mullen and Miss Dorothy Wagner, who wound up this season's New Deal concerts at the Empress Hotel.

Miss Mullen, the pianist, indicated by her solo playing that she was a competent pianist, capable of spirited interpretation, particularly in the Mozart "Pastorale Variations," the Bach-Busoni choral preludes and the Brahms-Granger "Cradle Song." But the novelty of Miss Wagner's dancing perhaps interested most of the audience.

Miss Wagner's stage presence is classic Greek in its suggestion. Her clothes enhance the impression of the Greek type and her dancing is on the whole somewhat severe and statuesque. Because of the classic nature of her earlier dances, it was interesting to see how she treated two preludes by George Gershwin. Here she brought out the modernistic jazz nature of the pieces in intriguing relationship to classic patterns, and was warmly applauded for her performance.

Miss Mullen's programme was as follows: "Chromatic Fantasia and Fugue" (Bach), "Etude Opus 10-12" (Chopin), "Pastorale Variations" (Mozart), two organ choral preludes, "I Call on Thee, Lord" and "In Thee I Joy" (Bach-Busoni), "Reflections in the Water" (Debussy), "Bourne and Folk Dances" (Bartok), "Allegro Barbaro" (Bartok), "Cradle Song" (Brahms-Granger), "Hornpipe" (Lord Berners) and "The King's Hunt" (Old English).

Miss Wagner danced to the following compositions: "Three Preludes" (Scriabine), "Three Tone Poems" (Yamada), "Six Little Piano Pieces" (Schoenberg), "Two Preludes" (Gershwin), and "Portuguese Peasant Dance" (Pont de y Aute).

PROTEST CUT IN PENSIONS

In an effort to correct what they consider improper cuts in pensions awarded war veterans suffering from chest ailments, the local Tuberculous Veterans' Association yesterday evening determined to seek the co-operation of the Dominion Command of the Canadian Legion and other branches throughout Canada to remedy recent slashes in the allowances given those cases.

The reductions in pensions, members present believed, were unjustifiable at the present time. It was felt discrimination was being shown against chest-disabled veterans and

LAND VALUE TAX TO BE REPEALED

London, May 10.—The government yesterday published a surprise finance bill that would have the effect of repealing the land value tax launched in the 1931 budget of Viscount Snowden. The surprise was occasioned by the fact the move was not mentioned in the recent budget speech of Rt. Hon. Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer.

The land value tax, passed in the Finance Act of 1931, called for payment in the year ending March 1934, and each year thereafter, a sum of one penny for each pound sterling of the value of land holdings. Operation of the tax was suspended in Mr. Chamberlain's 1933 budget, and ever since there has been a strong demand, especially in Conservative quarters, for its repeal.

In accordance with his wishes, Viscount Snowden, captain of the Royal Guernsey Golf Club, were scattered on the links at La Cresse, England.

MENTAL WORK IS EXTENDEDMonthly Clinic Will Be Held By Dr. Crease in Victoria

The British Columbia government, extending its work in caring for the mentally unfit. Arrangements have been completed for a monthly psychiatric clinic in Victoria under the direction of Dr. A. L. Crease, superintendent of B.C. mental hospitals.

The examinations here will be conducted each month at Douglas House, a Superior Street, which will be devoted to the purpose.

Eventually it is hoped to extend its service throughout the province. Government psychiatrists have made radical calls in the past but an establishment of regular monthly service will broaden the work.

The main object is the examination of child cases, especially those of school age. If the response here is efficient the service may be extended again, but at present will be confined to one day a month.

LIVE BANKERS LISTED FOR TRIAL

Associated Press

Cleveland, O., May 10.—Five former Cleveland bankers and a former county official had been indicted today by a federal grand jury on charges of making a false financial statement and using the mails to promote a scheme to defraud.

The latest indictments, culminating year of investigation by Department of Justice agents, centre around alleged "window dressing" of statements of condition of the Union Trust Company and Guardian Trust company, which went into liquidation following last year's national banking holiday.

Those indicted are Joseph R. Nutt, former chairman of the board of the Union Trust Co. and former treasurer of the Republic National Bank; Wilbur M. Baldwin, former trustee; John T. Smith, former trustee; and Harry C. Robinson, former Guardian vice-president, and ex-Bernstein, former chief deputy treasurer.

The name of David Harper, who was indicted in the same case last year, should have been well up in a second class session.

Reduced express rates on berries from British Columbia to Alberta points went into effect this week, according to information secured by J. A. Grant, B.C. markets commissioner, from the Canadian Express Association.

'CADDY' SEEN AT TEN MILE POINT

While Out Picnicking Victorians See Creature Snorting and Blowing

While picnicking yesterday at the cable crossing at Ten Mile Point, Miss Florence Aranson and Al. Vars saw what they believed to be "Caddy" or "Penda." They were eating their lunch and were looking over the water when something that looked like a log floated across the bay. The thing ducked and came to the surface blowing and snorting and thrashing about.

They could not see the whole body, but three feet of the head and neck protruded from the water. The head was about two feet wide. They sat watching this strange thing for fully five minutes as it sped across the bay. They said they could have taken a picture had they brought a film for the camera which they had in the car.

RECORDS FALL BEFORE RECORD CROWD

A record crowd of 40,000 attending the historic Penn Relay Carnival in Philadelphia saw records fall on track and field. An outstanding performer was Halston Legore (left), North Carolina, who hurled the javelin 214 feet 8 1/2 inches, bettering the old mark by more than nine and one-half feet. A famous record-breaker on the cinder paths was Glenn Cunningham, Kansas star, pictured at right breathing the tape to win the mile event from Gene Venzke in 4:11.8, a new meet mark. Venzke was fifteen yards behind at the finish.

Peggy Hodgson In Brilliant Victory

Colwood Star Defeats Mrs. B. R. Philbrick, Oak Bay, 2 Up to Gain Semi-finals in B.C. Women's Amateur Golf; Mrs. Jackson Beaten

Canadian Press
Vancouver, May 10.—Lone survivor of Victoria's contingent of five stars who faced the qualifying round in the British Columbia women's golf championship Tuesday, Miss Peggy Hodgson faced her toughest opponent to date when she teed off with Miss Kay Farrell in one match of the semi-final.

In the other match Mrs. W. M. Silcock, Jericho, fought it out with a clubmate, Mrs. K. C. Allen, former Victoria star, for a berth in the final to-morrow.

Yesterday Miss Hodgson breezed around the heart-breaking course in the morning to defeat Mrs. E. Eadie, Quilchena, 2 and 1, then came back in the afternoon to take a 2-up decision from Mrs. B. R. Philbrick, Victoria, last year's runner-up.

The Colwood stylist on the outgoing nine collecting two birdie fours on the longest and hardest holes of the course, reached the turn in 40, just one over par and the best mark carded in the title hunt so far.

GETS ANOTHER BIRDIE
Miss Hodgson carded another birdie on the difficult sixteenth on the incoming trip, but a seven and a trio of sixes kept her from setting the best score of the tourney. She finished in 46 for an eighteen-hole score of 86.

Miss Farrell straight hitting Jericho ace, fought over hole for her 2-up victory over Mrs. E. Jackson, Victoria.

WINS EASILY
Mrs. Allen had little difficulty in disposing of Miss Margaret Wood, Quilchena, ending the match on the fifteenth green, 4 up. The former Victoria star made good use of her irons and had plenty of distance to her drives.

Miss Marjorie Moss, after taking four straight holes from Mrs. Silcock, faltered and lost five squared the match, then lost out on the eighteenth green when her putter failed her and she four-putted.

Spencers Retain Football Shield

Defeat Navy 3 to 1 in McKay Trophy Replay For Second Straight Victory in Series; Presentations to Daryl Bissell

The curtain was dropped on another Wednesday League football season at the Athletic Park yesterday afternoon, when Spencers, league champions, downed the Navy, 3 to 1 to add the McKay Shield to their laurels. The teams were tied, 1 to 1, at half time. Last week they fought to a scoreless draw, while last year, in the final for the same challenge shield, Spencers scored a single goal victory.

At half-time yesterday, Daryl Bissell, captain of Spencers, was presented with a miniature cup, which goes to each player on the winning team. Bissell is leaving soon for the interior. President Arthur Stokes made the presentation. W. B. Grant, president of the winning team, presented the captain with gifts from the team.

In the first half Art Chapman scored for Spencers and Walker for the Navy. After resumption of play, Bernie Clarke netted the winning goal, and the same player added another for good measure toward the close.

NAVY MAN HURT
The winners appeared to deserve the victory on the day's play. They started off strongly and Dick Caldwell, in the Navy net, was kept busy. The Navy were unfortunate to have Chuck McDonald's efficiency lowered early in the half through injury.

Art Chapman scored the first Spencer goal after a corner kick, but the Navy soon took a page out of their opponents' book and netted in like manner through Walker. As the game progressed toward half time, Spencers pressed hard. Chapman nearly scoring, and Lee Bradley heading the ball against the Navy crossbar twice.

In the second half, the league champions went after the lead, and after some fine goallending by Caldwell, they finally scored through Clarke, who tapped in Wilson's cross pass from a yard out. Caldwell was well beaten on the play.

Spencers made it 3 to 1 not long after. McKinnon shot and Clarke went in fast to realize on the rebound. The final whistle blew with the Navy defence being sorely tested.

R. Alcock refereed. The teams were: Spencers, Rutledge, Munroe, McKinnon, Bissell, D. Bradley, L. Bradley, Browne, Clarke, Chapman and Wilson. Navy—Caldwell, Hall, Stoney, McDonald, Robinson, Hutton, Sweet, Bennalack, Marr, Keene and Walker.

MAYHEW WINS CLUB TOURNEY

Captures E. G. Maynard Cup, Emblematic of Pacific Club Championship

R. W. Mayhew, reeve of Oak Bay, won the E. G. Maynard trophy, emblematic of the Pacific Club golf championship, in competition with a large field of golfers at the Colwood course yesterday. He turned in a net 68, four strokes better than Fred McGregor and F. H. A. Norton, who tied for second place. Jack Watson was low gross scorer with an 83.

The second, fifth, eighth, fifteenth, sixteenth and eighteenth holes were set aside for the hidden-hole prize, which also went to Mayhew. W. F. Pinfold was the runner-up. Doug McGary took the prize for turning in the highest gross score, traveling over the long eighteen-hole distance in exactly 128 strokes.

COL. HAMMOND HAS RETURNED

New York, May 10.—The tall, white-haired West Point graduate, Col. John S. Hammond, is back in Tex Rickard's old quarters and Madison Square Garden looks more like its former self than at any time since the death of the great promoter over five years ago.

Hammond, who led a syndicate that bought control last week of the $7,000,000 structure he helped Rickard build nine years ago, moved into the very office on the third floor where Tex planned his greatest achievement. The only thing missing was Rickard's old bronze desk, once the workbench of President McKinley.

"Find that right away," ordered the colonel, "it's around the building somewhere. It's going right back to its old place there by the windows." Hammond helped Rickard organize the financial structure of the garden, and was the first to bring professional hockey into New York. He was president of the Rangers until 1932.

the reign of Carl Reynolds, Red Sox outfielder, who continued to maintain his big margin over the small and select group. While Reynolds only hit once in four trips to the plate to give him a nineteen-game average of .467, Kiki Cuyler, of the Chicago Cubs, entered the circle as the leading batsman, with nineteen hits out of forty-eight times at bat for .396 average. Sam Leslie, a Big Six in-and-out, betted his way back into the fold.

Grain Prices Soar
As Drought Goes On

Canadian Press
Winnipeg, May 10.—Bullish enthusiasm flared anew on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange to-day and, in line with extreme gains at Chicago wheat prices here whirled upward for a net advance of 2½ to 2½ cents. Anxiety over crop prospects, made hazardous by high temperatures and lack of rainfall, brought an influx of buying that absorbed all wheat offered in the pit with readiness. Wheat closed at 71½, July at 73 and October at 74½ cents.

The largest volume of wheat in some time changed hands during the session. Southern and eastern wheat was eagerly gobbled up all wheat put on the market, most of which came from the Government agency. Export sales were limited, but there appeared to be a further acceleration of the deferred futures by foreign interests.

Adverse weather conditions over wheat areas of both United States and Canada were the major influence on the market, and a maximum gain of 5 prices had a maximum gain of 5 cents. Liverpool wheat ended a small fraction lower.

Argentine wheat shipments for the week totaled 1,941,000 bushels against a little more than 2,000,000 bushels last week. Russia shipped no wheat but Black Sea ports put 890,000 bushels afloat.

Cash grains rallied. Coarse grains had substantial gains.

CHICAGO
Associated Press
Chicago, May 10.—The wheat market to-day soared to the extreme permissible limit of 5 cents a bushel. Immense speculative purchasing accompanied the rise. Sensational crop damage advice, virtually unabated drought, and persistent widespread storms of dust furnished the incentive for the general rush to buy.

Extreme maximum top prices for wheat were held as the day's trading ended, with the close strong 4½ to 5 cents up, corn 1½ to 2½ up, oats 2½ to 3½ advanced, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 12 cents.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

Make Caring For Children A Business Proposition And Grandma Will Be Glad To Help Mother—Are There Any Arguments In Favor Of Boy's Marriage?

DEAR MISS DIX—We help my parents and do it gladly, although it cramps our budget to do so. We do not begrudge this, but it would be heaven to me if my mother would offer once a week, or even once a fortnight, to take care of my two children while my husband and I went out to some place of amusement, but she never does. Occasionally I will ask her and she agrees to have the youngsters for an hour or two, but she always does it reluctantly. "Well, I'll take them, but I have a terrific headache." Or "Of course, you can bring them, but I am awfully busy." And so on in a way that indicates that she thinks I have colossal nerve to ask such a favor.

My mother is not old and is in good health. She belongs to no clubs, goes nowhere and has little work to do, so I see no reason why she should not help me out now and then. How can I put it up to her diplomatically?

MRS. JIM.

Answer—This is not a case for diplomacy. It is one where brutal tactics are called for. You have to fight selfishness with selfishness, and so I think you should put up taking care of the children as a business proposition to your mother.

Tell her that you are going to use the money that you give her every week in employing some one to look after the children while you and your husband step out, and if she wishes to earn it you would prefer to give her the job. Perhaps if she felt she was being paid for keeping an eye on the children she would not object to it so much.

Your mother must be an inordinately self-centred woman not to be willing to do what she can to lighten your load and to bring a little pleasure into your life. Most mothers remember how tired down they were with their babies in their young days. They remember how weary they got of the sight of the four walls of their homes in which they were virtually prisoners, and how they longed to get out for a walk without having to push a perambulator before them.

They recall how their feet ached to dance, how they yearned to go places where people were dressed up and amusing themselves, and what a lark it seemed to get out for an evening alone with their husbands, even if they never did anything wilder than going to a cafeteria for dinner and to a movie afterward.

Most mothers are eager to pinch-hit for their daughters and take care of the children so that Mary and Sally can get out and have a little fun. Besides that, most grandmothers are crazy about the grandchildren and consider they are having the time of their lives when they can have them to their heart's content. And a queer, cautious old heart must a woman have who does not feel this way about her children's children.

Of course, primarily a woman's children are her own responsibility and it is up to her to take care of them in the main. She has no right to dump them on her mother half a dozen times a week while she goes off to amuse herself. Any woman who has raised her own family of children has done her share of baby-tending, and it is her turn to spend her afternoons playing contract instead of giving Junior his sun bath and keeping Johnny from getting run over by automobiles and playing dolls with little Mary.

But, on the other hand, mother can save daughter's reason and keep her from a nervous breakdown, from quarrelling with her husband, by taking the children home with her for a few hours now and then and giving daughter a chance to relax and rest and get a new viewpoint by going out among the bright lights.

DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX—Will you please give me all the arguments in favor of marriage for a boy from a boy's viewpoint.

Answer—There are none. Nothing but a miracle can save a boy's marriage from being a disaster to him and wrecking his life, and miracles take place so seldom that no one has a right to expect one to happen to him and save him from the result of his folly.

The only argument that even the boy himself can bring forward is that he is in love and he cannot wait until he is grown up for the happiness that he thinks he will secure by getting married at once. He cannot contend that it is wise or expedient or that he is ready for marriage.

Against the boy's one argument for marriage you can bring a thousand potent reasons against it. First, that because a boy thinks he is in love is no justification of his marriage because a boy's love is not made of the stuff that lasts. It is just as passing as a fancy as his taste in clothes or amusements. Any new girl will drive the old girl out of his heart and no marriage ceremony will prevent this catastrophe from happening.

Secondly, a boy has not had his playtime and is not ready to settle down. After marriage he will be just as anxious to step out and amuse himself as he was before marriage, and this will be a tragedy if the poor girl wife moping at home. Third, it is eternally true that the young man married in the young man married. The boy who marries before he has got a start in the world blocks his career. He shuts many doors of opportunity in his face. He cannot leave a poor situation in search of a better one. And he gets in debt and gets so discouraged that his spirit is broken.

Fourth, a boy has no right to marry because he cannot support a family and it is a dastardly thing for him to burden his poor, hard-worked old parents with his wife and babies.

And lastly there is plenty of time in which to marry, and there is no reason for a boy to rush into matrimony before he is ready for it.

Uncle Wiggily's Clover

By HOWARD E. GARIS

One day when the rabbit gentleman was getting ready to hop away from his hollow stump bungalow, Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy called to him, saying: "Are you going to be very busy adventuring today, Uncle Wiggily?" "Oh, not special, Janie," he answered giving the mustard last housekeeper the pet name he and his wife sometimes used. "You are going adventuring, though, aren't you?" she asked, wiping her eyes on her apron for she had just finished giving the mustard last housekeeper the pet name he and his wife sometimes used. "No, I'm not planning to go down beside the waterfall and let the burdock seed fan you and have another dream and fool the Bad Chap, Mr. Longears," said Nurse Jane, sort of smiling. "No, I'm not planning to go down beside the waterfall and let the burdock seed fan you and have another dream and fool the Bad Chap, Mr. Longears," said Nurse Jane, sort of smiling. "No, I'm not planning to go down beside the waterfall and let the burdock seed fan you and have another dream and fool the Bad Chap, Mr. Longears," said Nurse Jane, sort of smiling.
